INCORPORATION.

A meeting of the committee appointed last week to take the necessary steps to secure the incorporation of the town was held on Friday evening last in Rose hall. Arrangements were made for drawing up the necessary petition and securing the signatures required. The persons entitled to sign the petition for incorporation are the male British subjects over twenty-one years of age who have been owners or householders within the limits of the proposed town for a period of three months next preceding the date of the petition. Upon proof by affidavit that at least two thirds of such persons have signed the petition and that public notice of such intended application, signed by three of the petitioners, has been posted in three different places within the proposed area for at least two weeks previous to the receipt of the petition by the Lieutenant Governor, and no opposition being offered, and there appearing no just or reasonable ground for refusing such incorporation the Lieutenant Governor shall proclaim the area a municipality by the name proposed or some other suitable name. But if such petition be disputed by any person entitled to petition within such area, on affidavit stating the facts, or appear to the Lieutenant Governor or that the proposed boundaries are objectionable for any cause then the Lieutenant Governor shall refer the petition and all matters connected therewith to the legislative assembly.

The continued disclosures of rascality at Ottawa are not pleasant reading to patriotic Canadians, but inasmuch as they are the exposure of—and it is to be hoped preliminary to punishment for—wrong doing it is more pleasant than the utterances on the subject of what has in terms more apt than amiable been called the "reptile press," that is the Toronto Empire, Montreal Gazette, Ottawa Citizen, Hamilton Spectator and London Free Press. These papers are horrified at the corruption that has been rampant at Quebec, with which only one of them has any direct concern, but they know nothing and believe nothing regarding the ten times greater corruption which is proven to exist at Ottawa, with which their concern is most direct. Papers which are so easy to convince in regard to rascality at Quebec and so hard to convince regarding like offences at Ottawa show a kind of blindness that is only produced by one cause—gold dust, or its equivalent. If they were as wise as they are willing in the advancement of the cause of their paymasters they would hesitate before joining so loudly in the hue and cry against the reptile Mercier. While they can see the vast moral difference between stealing $100,000 at Quebec and $1,000,000 at Ottawa the general public cannot, and their vociferation of "turn the rascals out" at Quebec, is certain to find its echo in the cry of "turn the rascals out" at Ottawa. Besides, it would appear that in interfering with the little side transactions of the newly made count at Quebec—their most apt pupil in their own peculiar political methods—in the hope of taking public attention from the Ottawa villains, they have "woken up the wrong passenger," who is likely to make it more interesting for them than ever. As the government's majority climbs gradually down the possibility of shielding villainy decreases. The chances are that the circus is only beginning.

The Glasgow Herald of August 6th, a copy of which was handed to the BULLETIN by Douglas Petrie, has a long letter on the mining resources of Alberta from James Buchanan, Presbyterian minister of Red Deer. The letter is most interesting and the information it contains in regard to cattle raising and the possibilities of coal mining on the Red Deer is most valuable. There is one objectionable feature however. The letter assumes to speak for Alberta, a district of widely varied physical features, climate and resources, when in reality it only speaks for the Red Deer district of Alberta. One statement is "It would be wrong to say that Alberta is a grain growing district." However this may apply to other parts of the country, in regard to the Edmonton district it is simply not the fact. The Edmonton district is a grain growing district in all that the term implies. It raises heavier crops with fewer failures than any part of Manitoba or the Northwest outside the Red River Valley and excels that in everything but wheat. A steam grist mill has been in operation here ever since 1880 and there is now a second, which only shut down grinding on last years crop a few weeks ago. There is now being harvested in this district as fine a crop of wheat as any farmer could desire. There was sold to the railway company over 40,000 bushels of last years crop of oats. Barley is a sure and prolific crop, and the quality of the grain is unequalled, unless perhaps in Great Britain itself.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

T. M. Glover of Toronto, who came to Edmonton at the request of a number of Ontario farmers who wished him to examine and report on the district, and who left on Wednesday train gives his impressions as follows:

MR. EDITOR.

I am delighted with the appearance of the country adjacent to Edmonton. The land is very rich and productive which is plainly corroborated by the abundance of grain and wonderful root crops of all kinds. This is a grand country for mixed farming. I know of no better for stock, and so far as I can see and learn the farmers are doing well and are contented. I shall do what I can toward persuading persons (about moving to the western part of Canada) to locate in the vicinity of Edmonton. It will pay them to do so. There is a grand future for the district of Edmonton. The people are aware of it, and have shown their faith by waiting patiently for railway communication which they now have got. I hope the C. P. R. will run into the village of Edmonton which I think is the finest location I have seen anywhere in this western country for a large, healthy and prosperous town. Coal can be secured in abundance at a very cheap rate which is of great importance on prairie land. I wish to say that up to date there has been no frost to hurt the grain and roots.

T. M. GLOVER.

STURGEON POSTOFFICE.

Pursuant to notice a meeting of the settlers of Sturgeon was held at the school house for the purpose of securing a post office in the settlement. D. Craig was appointed chairman and the undersigned secretary.

The meeting being addressed by a number of settlers it was set forth that a copy of the minutes of the meeting would suffice to forward to the postmaster general, as two petitions had already been sent to the government on this matter. In conclusion D. McKinlay brought forward the following resolution, W. H. Craig and E. W. Johnston being sponsors for the same.

Whereas this settlement is a large and important portion of Alberta and it is essential for the continued and successful progress of the community that mail service be established to keep the people in touch with the outside world, therefore resolved that in the opinion of this meeting the government would be justified in maintaining a semi-weekly mail from the railway terminus, distant 18 miles; and that James Johnston, merchant, at the church and school house on the four corners of roads on Section 3, township 55, range 24, be appointed postmaster; and that the post office be called Naomia, (Cree for Sturgeon). A vote being taken on the resolution it was declared unanimously carried.

M. McKINLAY.

Sturgeon, August 22, 1891.

The people of Calgary propose to invest a portion of their spare shekels in advertising their town through the Toronto Globe. This may be a wise investment of money, but a paper which publishes an advertisement such as the following—taken from its weekly issue of July 19th, 1891—can scarcely be considered deserving of Northwest patronage, especially for immigration purposes: "A favored land! Do you want money, health, a home? Go to the Red River Valley, Minnesota and Dakota, for farming and No. 1. hard. 1,500,000 acres choice farm lands on the line of the Great Northern Railway. For all points in the Northwest, timetables, pamphlets, and full particulars, write or inquire of any Grand Trunk Station or ticket agent, to J. M. Huckin, Canadian agent G. N. R. 4 Palmer house block, Toronto; J. M. Whitney, general passenger agent; C. J. Whellans, immigration agent, Great Northern Railway, St. Paul, Minn."

The Winnipeg Daily Tribune's souvenir publication is to hand. It is a most interesting compilation of facts and figures relating to the City of Winnipeg and contains cuts of 72 notable buildings, both business and residence, in the city and photos of a large number of the prominent citizens. The matter of the publication and not less the manner in which it is presented makes it a worthy reminder of a great city and not less of the enterprise of the Daily Tribune.

COL. HOWARD VINCENT, M. P., for Sheffield, England, the well known writer and speaker on commercial questions, will give an address in the Opera house, Calgary on the evening of Monday, August 31st, on the means of increasing and developing trade between Canada, Great Britain and other parts of the Empire.

The prize list of the Medicine Hat agricultural exhibition to be held on October 7th and 8th is to hand. It is in the form of a 24 page pamphlet, the get up of which reflects the greatest credit on the Medicine Hat Times printing establishment.

The Dominion Illustrated of the two latest issues contain sketches of St. Andrews, N. B. St. Anne's, Quebec, views from the Sault Ste Marie and the Rocky Mountain region, Milan Cathedral, etc. The reading matter is excellent.
